endorsement of the right to the shares were fulfilled and the Company shall not recognize any right of a Person to shares before his right has been proven as aforesaid.

- 31.2 Without derogating from the aforesaid, the Board may refuse or delay the registration, as it would have been entitled to do had the registered holder transferred the share himself prior to the endorsement of the right.
32. Subject to the provisions of the Companies Law and the provisions of these Articles of Association, a Person who becomes entitled to a share as provided in Article 30 above shall be entitled to dividends and other rights due to the share as though he were the registered holder of the share, even if he has not yet been registered as such; however, prior to being registered as a Shareholder in the Register with respect to the share, he shall not be entitled, by virtue of such share, to benefit from any right of a Shareholder with respect to the Company's meetings.
33. Notwithstanding the aforesaid, the Board may, at any time, demand that the Person entitled to the share as provided in Article 30 above, register himself in the Register or transfer the share to another. In the event that the said requirement is not fulfilled within 60 days from the date of delivery thereof, the Board may withhold dividends and other rights stemming from the share, until the demand is fulfilled. The Board may determine, by way of coupons or otherwise, the methods for payment of dividends or granting of other rights due to the shares included in the deed.
37. A Shareholder holding a share deed may return the deed to the Company for the cancellation thereof and the conversion thereof into a registered share. Upon the cancellation, the Shareholder's name shall be recorded in the Shareholders' Register, including the number of shares registered in his name, as required by the Companies Law.
38. A Shareholder holding a share deed may deposit the share deed at the Office or any other place determined therefor by the Board and after 48 hours from the deposit onwards, and so long as the share deed remains deposited as aforesaid, the depositor shall have the right to sign a demand to convene a general meeting of the Company, to participate in any general meeting of the Company, to vote therein and use the other rights granted to a Shareholder at any general meeting that is convened, as though his name was recorded in the Shareholders' Register as the holder of the shares included in the deposited share deed. Only one Person shall be recognized as the depositor of a specific share deed. The Company shall return the share deed to the depositor within 48 hours from the receipt of a written demand from the depositor to return the share deed.

If the Company is provided with a bank confirmation of the deposit at the bank of a share deed in favor of the Shareholder, stating the name, identity and address of the depositor and the bank's undertaking to notify the Company of the cancellation of the deposit at least 48 hours prior to returning the share deed to the depositor, the share deed shall be deemed, for purposes of this article, as though deposited at the Company's Office from the date of receipt of the confirmation by the Company until the date on which the Company receives notice from the bank regarding the cancellation of the deposit, or until the date on which the Board learns that the deposit has been cancelled, whichever is earlier.

39. Unless specifically determined otherwise in these Articles of Association, a Person holding a share deed may not sign a demand to convene a general meeting of the Company or participate in a general meeting or vote therein and may not exercise other rights of a Shareholder at general meetings of the Company; however, the holder of the share deed shall be a Shareholder of the Company and shall have, in all other respects, any and all rights as though his name was recorded in the Shareholders' Register as the holder of the shares included in the share deed.

40. The Board may, if it deems fit, determine and modify, from time to time, the terms for issuing a new share deed or new voucher instead of a share deed or voucher previously issued by the Company; however, the Board shall not issue a share deed or voucher as aforesaid unless the previous voucher or share deed together with all of the vouchers issued therefor and not yet paid, are given to the Company for cancellation, or it is proven, to the Board's satisfaction, that they have been destroyed or if the Board agrees thereto at its absolute discretion, and the Company is given a guarantee or indemnification letter, to the Board's full satisfaction, to cover any damage that might be incurred as a result thereof

- 43.1 Allot each Shareholder who has been left with a fraction of a share, as a result of the consolidation or split, shares of the class of shares that existed in the Company's capital prior to the consolidation or split, in such number, whereby consolidation thereof with the fraction would create one whole share, and such an allotment shall be deemed as valid shortly before the consolidation or split, as the case may be;
 - 43.2 Determine the manner in which the amounts due and payable for the shares allotted as provided in Article 43.1 above, shall be paid, including the manner in which amounts may be paid on account of stock dividends;

The maximum indemnity amount to be paid by the Company (in addition to amounts received under insurance policies, whether paid to the Company or a Held Company thereof, as defined below, or whether paid to an Officer or employee), in the aggregate, to all of the Officers or employees of the Company or of Held Companies thereof, according to all of the indemnification undertakings under the letters of indemnification given to them thereby, shall not exceed 25% (twenty five percent) of the Company's equity, according to its latest financial statements released shortly before the date of actual payment of the indemnification amount (the "Maximum Indemnity Amount").

146A.1.2. Notwithstanding the provisions of Article 146A.1.1 above, if the Total Indemnity Amount is higher than the Maximum Indemnity Amount, the maximum amount paid by the Company, in the aggregate, to all of those entitled to indemnification, as provided in Article 146A.1.1 above, shall not exceed the Total Indemnity Amount. However, the Difference Amount shall only be used for the purpose of indemnification for acts carried out prior to November 9, 2011, on which the Company's general meeting approved an amendment to these Articles of Association.

For this purpose: the “Total Indemnity Amount”, shall mean 25% (twenty five percent) of the Company's equity, according to its financial statements for 2000 being adjusted, from time to time, to the rate of increase in the Consumer Price Index (the “Index”), compared with the Index for December 2000, which was published in January 2001;

The “Difference Amount” means the difference between the Total Indemnity Amount and the Maximum Indemnity Amount;

“Held Company” means another company, in which the Company directly or indirectly holds any percentage of shares.

146A.2. The provisions of Article 146A.1 above shall apply to any Indemnity Undertaking given by the Company after the entry into force of the Companies Law (i.e. after February 1, 2000) other than an Indemnity Undertaking approved by the Company's general meeting of April 18, 2000 and other than Undertakings for Indemnification given by Tefahot Israel Mortgage Bank Ltd. or companies under its control or by Adanim Mortgage Bank Ltd., which were merged into the Company and in this context the Company assumed the said undertakings.

Dividends, Funds and Capitalization of Funds and Profits

147. The Board may, prior to deciding on the distribution of a dividend, as provided in Article 150 below, set aside any amounts from the profits, as it deems fit, to a general fund or reserve fund for any requirements or purposes, as determined by the Board at its discretion.
148. Until said funds are used, the Board may invest the amounts set aside as aforesaid and the funds' monies in any investment whatsoever, as it deems fit, and attend to, change or otherwise use these investments, and it may divide the reserve fund into special funds and use any fund or part thereof for the Company's business, without keeping it separate from the other assets of the Company, all at the Board's discretion and on such terms determined thereby.
149. Subject to the provisions of any law, the Board may, from time to time, revalue the Company's assets and property, in whole or in part, and if the new value exceeds the value determined in the Company's last balance sheet preceding the valuation – the Board may credit the difference, in whole or in part, to a revaluation fund.
150. Subject to the provisions of the Companies Law, the Board may adopt a resolution to distribute a dividend. The Board resolving to distribute a dividend may resolve that the dividend shall be paid, in whole or in part, in cash or by way of a distribution in kind, including in securities or in any other manner, at the Board's discretion.
151. 151.1 (a) Subject to the provisions of the Companies Law, the Board may resolve to allot stock dividends and to convert part of the Company's profits, within the meaning thereof in Section 302(b) of the Companies Law, into share capital, from premium on shares or from any other source included in its equity, as provided in its last financial statements, in an amount to be determined by the Board, which shall be no less than the par value of the stock dividends.

- (b) Stock dividends allotted according to this article shall be deemed paid for in full.

151.2. The Board resolving to allot stock dividends may decide that the Company transfer to a special fund designated for the distribution of stock dividends in the future, such amount which conversion into share capital shall suffice to allot to any person who at such time for any reason, holds a right to purchase shares in the Company (including a right which may only be exercised at a later date), stock dividends which would have been due to him had he exercised the right to purchase the shares prior to the record date for the right to receive the stock dividends (in this article – the “Record Date”). If after the Record Date the said rightholder exercises his right to purchase the shares or part thereof, the Company shall allot to him stock dividends of such par value as would have been due to him had he exercised the right to purchase the shares he actually purchased prior to the Record Date, by converting an appropriate part of the said special fund into share capital.

The stock dividends shall entitle the holders thereof to participate in the distribution of the dividends in cash or stock dividends commencing from such date as shall be determined by the Board. With regard to the determination of the amount to be transferred to the said special fund, any amount transferred to such fund for previous distributions of stock dividends shall be deemed as having already being capitalized and as though shares entitling the holders of the right to purchase shares to stock dividends, had already been allotted therefrom.

152. Subject to the rights attached to the classes of the shares issued by the Company and the provisions of these Articles of Association, dividends or stock dividends shall be distributed to the Shareholders pro rata to the par value of each share, without taking into account any premium paid thereon.

153. For the purpose of implementing a resolution regarding the distribution of a dividend or an allotment of stock dividends, the Board may:
 - 153.1. Settle any difficulty arising in connection therewith as it deems fit and take any and all steps it deems fit to overcome such difficulty;
 - 153.2. Resolve that fractions or fractions in an amount lower than a specific amount to be determined by the Board, shall not be taken into account for the purpose of adjusting the right of the Shareholders or to sell fractions of shares and pay the consideration (net) to the persons entitled thereto;
 - 153.3. Authorize the signing on behalf of the Shareholders, of any contract or other document required to give effect to an allotment or distribution and in particular to authorize the signing and filing for registration, of a written document as provided in Section 291 of the Companies Law;
 - 153.4. Make any other arrangement which in the Board's opinion is required in order to enable the allotment.
154. Dividends or other benefits for shares shall not bear interest.
155. Without derogating from the provisions hereof, the Board may withhold any dividend or stock dividend or other benefit deriving from a share, in the event that the consideration set for it, in whole or in part, was not paid to the Company, and may collect any such amount or proceeds received from the sale of any stock dividend or other benefit, on account of the debts or liabilities for the said share.
156. The Board is entitled, but is not obligated, as it deems fit and beneficial, to appoint trustees or nominees for the holders of share deeds who for such period, as determined by the Board, have not contacted the Company to receive dividends, shares or other securities or benefits, and for those Registered Shareholders who did not fulfill their duty to notify the Company of a change in their address and who have not contacted the Company to receive dividends, shares, other securities or benefits during the aforesaid period. Such nominees or trustees shall be appointed in order to realize, collect or receive dividends, shares, other securities or benefits, or to subscribe for unissued shares that are offered to the Shareholders, but shall not be entitled to transfer the original shares in respect of which they were appointed, nor vote pursuant thereto. In the conditions of any trust or nominee appointment, the Company shall stipulate that upon the first demand of the Shareholder in respect of which the trustees or nominees hold office, the trustees or nominees shall be required to return to such Shareholder the said share or all of the rights held by them for him, as the case may be. Any act and arrangement made by such nominees or trustees and any agreement between the Board and such nominees or trustees shall be valid and bind all of the relevant parties.

157. The Board may, from time to time, determine the method of payment of dividends or allotment of the stock dividends or their transfer to those entitled thereto, and may determine provisions, procedures and arrangements in connection thereto, with respect to the Registered Shareholders, the Unregistered Shareholders and the Shareholders holding a share deed. Without derogating from the generality of the aforesaid, the Board may determine as follows:

157.1. (a) Subject to the provisions of Sub-article (b) below, dividends or monies distributed to Registered Shareholders shall be paid to a Registered Shareholder by sending a check in the mail to his address as recorded in the Shareholders' Register. Any sending of a check as aforesaid shall be carried out at the risk of the Registered Shareholder.

Without derogating from the aforesaid, the Board may determine that a dividend amount which is lower than a certain amount to be determined by the Board shall not be sent by check as aforesaid, and the provisions of Sub-article (b) below shall apply in respect thereof

(b) The Board may determine that the payment of dividends or monies distributed to Registered Shareholders shall be made at the Office or any other place determined by the Board.

157.2. A dividend distributed to Unregistered Shareholders shall be transferred to the said Shareholders through the nominee company or in any other way determined by the Board.

158. In such cases where the Board determines the payment of a dividend, the allotment of shares or securities or the grant of a right to subscribe for securities which have not yet been issued and are offered to Shareholders, against the delivery of an appropriate voucher which is attached to any share deed, such payment, allotment or grant of a right of subscription against an appropriate voucher to the holder of the voucher, shall constitute a debt discharge for the Company regarding such act vis-à-vis any Person claiming a right to such payment, allotment or grant of right of subscription, as the case may be.
159. If two or more Persons are recorded in the Register as the joint holders of a share, each one of them may give a valid receipt for any dividend, share or other security or other monies or benefits due in respect of the share, and the check or payment order may be made out to the order of one of them and the check may be sent by registered mail to his address as recorded in the Register.

A notice given by facsimile transmission, shall be sent to the Shareholder according to the facsimile number provided by him to the Company. A notice delivered by e-mail, shall be sent to the Shareholder according to the e-mail address provided by him to the Company.

- 168.2. (a) A notice or document personally delivered to a Shareholder shall be deemed to have been delivered on the date of delivery to him.
- (b) A notice or document sent by post shall be deemed to have been duly delivered if handed over for dispatch at a post office bearing the correct address and duly stamped. Delivery shall be deemed to have taken place at the time the letter would have ordinarily been delivered by the postal service and no later than two days from the date on which the letter containing the notice as aforesaid was handed over at the post office.
- (c) A notice sent by facsimile or e-mail shall be deemed as delivered twenty-four hours after the dispatch thereof.
169. Without derogating from the aforesaid, the Company may send notice to the Registered Shareholders, Unregistered Shareholders and Shareholders holding a share deed by publishing the notice one time in two Hebrew-language daily newspapers published in Israel, either in addition to or instead of delivery of the notice by hand, by mail or by facsimile. deemed as duly delivered notwithstanding the death, bankruptcy or winding up of such Shareholder or the endorsement of the right to the shares by law (whether or not the Company was aware thereof), so long as nobody else is recorded as the holder of the shares in his stead, and dispatch or delivery as aforesaid shall be deemed, for all intents and purposes, as sufficient with respect to any Person interested in such shares or entitled thereto by virtue of the endorsement of the right, by law, whether together with such Shareholder or on his behalf or in his stead.

174. Subject to the provisions of any law, a Shareholder, director or any other Person who is entitled to receive notice pursuant to these Articles of Association or pursuant to the Law, may waive the receipt thereof, in advance or retroactively, for a particular case or in general, and having done so, the notice shall be deemed as duly given, and any proceeding or act for which the notice was required to have been given shall be deemed effective and valid.
175. Written confirmation signed by a director or by the Company's Secretary regarding the dispatch of a document or the giving of notice in any of the methods specified herein shall be deemed as conclusive proof of any detail included therein.
176. Whenever prior notice of several days or notice which is valid for a specific period, is required to be given, the date of delivery shall be taken into account in the count of the days or period, unless determined otherwise. 177. The majority required for a resolution by a general meeting on a merger as provided in Chapter One, Part Eight of the Companies Law insofar as such merger requires the approval of the general meeting or a class meeting by law, is a Simple Majority.

Re-organization

178. Subject to the provisions of any law, in any event that the Company wishes to sell its enterprise, in whole or in part (the "Enterprise") to another company (the "Other Company"), the Board or the liquidators

– if the Company is in liquidation – may, with the approval of the Company’s general meeting, in a resolution adopted by a Super Majority, receive in consideration for the Enterprise shares which have been fully or partially paid-up or other securities or collateral of the Other Company, whether the Other Company exists at such time or is incorporated for the purpose of purchasing the Enterprise as aforesaid, and the Board or the liquidators – in the event of liquidation – may, subject to the provisions of any law, distribute among the Shareholders (or deposit for them with trustees) such shares, securities or collateral or any other property of the Company without disposition thereof.

Capitalization

179. Subject to the provisions of any law, if the Enterprise is transferred in whole or in part to the Other Company as provided in Article 178 above, the Company may, with the approval of the Company’s general meeting, by a Super Majority, distribute or allocate the shares, securities, collateral, cash, benefits or other property of the Company in a manner different to that in which they would have been required to be distributed or allocated in accordance with the precise legal rights of the Company’s Shareholders. However, where shares of the Company, in whole or in part, are bearer shares or shares listed for trade on a stock exchange, the distribution or allocation shall be carried out in accordance with the legal rights of the Shareholders, as precisely as possible.
180. In order to implement the provisions of Articles 178 and 179 above, the general meeting may, in a resolution adopted by a Super Majority, instruct that the shares, other securities, collateral, benefits and other property of the Company be evaluated in such manner and price as the Company shall decide.

182. For purposes of Article 181 above, anyone who submitted an application for shares and the shares were not yet been allotted to him, shall be deemed to have been allotted, prior to the winding up, the shares included in his application, paid up in the amount paid on account of the par value of such shares.

Subject to the provisions of any law, the liquidator may, according to a resolution of the general meeting adopted by a Super Majority, distribute in kind the surplus assets in whole or in part, between the Shareholders, and the liquidator may, according to a resolution of the general meeting adopted by a Super Majority, deposit any part of the surplus assets with trustees who shall hold them in trust in favor of the Shareholders, as the liquidator deems fit. For the purpose of distributing the surplus assets in kind, the liquidator may determine the proper value of the assets available for distribution and decide how the distribution between the Shareholders shall take place, considering the rights attached to the various classes of shares in the Company held by them.
